

Spitfire "41-401" Identified - at last.

It was really MA298

These photo's show the cockpit interior and most important, the firewall between engine and cockpit. It clearly shows the big white "V" - for being build as a Mk.V Spitfire and also clearly show the yellow stencil with the original RAF number, MA298.

The Spitfire is currently on display at the Airforce Museum in Stauning.

